- (i) These rules may be called the Andhra Pradesh State Teachers (Regulation of Transfers) Rules, 2025.
- (ii) These rules shall apply to Headmasters Gr.II, School Assistants, Secondary Grade Teachers and equivalent cadres under the Management of Government, Mandal Parishad, Zilla Parishad, Municipalities and Municipal Corporations of Foundational, Primary, Upper Primary and High Schools.
- (iii) These rules shall come into force with immediate effect.

2. Criteria for Transfers

- (i) The following categories of Headmasters (Gr.II)/Teachers in the Government/ Zilla Parishad/Mandal Parishad/ Municipalities and Municipal Corporations shall be transferred.
 - (a) Those Headmasters (Gr.II) who have completed five (5) academic years of service in a particular school as on the date of closure of Academic Year i.e 31st May of that Year shall be transferred compulsorily.
 - (b) Those Teachers, other than Headmasters (Gr.II) who have completed eight (8) academic years of service in a particular school as on the date of closure of Academic Year i.e 31st May of that Year shall be transferred compulsorily.

Note:- For (a) & (b), If any Headmaster Grade II or Teacher is transferred on request or mutual grounds during the ban period then the period worked in both stations shall be taken into account to calculate the maximum period when determining eligibility for compulsory transfer from the date of commencement of the Act.

- (c) Headmasters Gr.II/ Teachers who completed a minimum period of two (2) academic years of service in a school as on 31st May of that Year in which transfers are to be taken up shall be eligible to apply for request transfer.

Note: For (a) to (c), Headmasters Gr.II/Teachers who have completed minimum of nine(9) months of service in one academic year shall be treated as one complete academic year as on 31st May of that year.

- (d) Provided that Headmasters Gr.II/ Teachers, who are going to retire within two (2) years, i.e., on or before 31st May of the respective year, shall not be transferred except upon their own request.
- (e) A Male Headmaster Gr.II/ Teacher aged below fifty (50) years as on 31st May of that year and working in Girl's High school shall be transferred mandatorily.
- (f) If no women Headmaster Gr.II/ Teacher is available to work in Girl's High School, then the male Headmaster Gr.II/ Teacher who crossed fifty (50) years of age as on May 31st of that year shall be considered for posting to such schools.
- (g) The Headmaster Grade II who has completed five (5) academic years of service, and the teacher who has completed eight (8) academic years of service as NCC Officers in their respective NCC Units, as far as possible posted to a vacancy in a school where the same NCC Unit is available. If no such vacancy is available in another school with the same NCC Unit, they may be continued in the same school upon their request. However, if any NCC Officer is facing disciplinary proceedings, they shall be transferred to a general vacancy, irrespective of the NCC Unit.
- (h) Teachers and Gr.II Head Masters facing/ faced charges under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012/Girl child abuse case, shall not be opted to the same Mandal/Municipality or any Girls High School. In case of Municipal Corporation Schools, teacher shall be posted in distant cluster.
- (i) If Article of charges are pending against the Headmaster Gr.II/ Teacher, he/she shall not be considered for request transfer.
- (ii) Criteria for identification of teachers to be shifted due to re-apportionment of surplus posts.

- (a) If a post is found surplus and proposed for shifting to a needy school, the same shall be shifted.
 - (b) If there is no clear vacancy/ compulsory transfer vacancy, junior most teacher shall be shifted.
 - (c) If a senior teacher in the school is willing for transfer, he/she may be shifted without reapportionment points.
 - (d) Persons with bench mark disability shall be exempted and the next junior most shall be affected under reapportionment.
 - (e) If the Junior most teacher exempted under Rule 2-(i) (d) & 2(ii) (d) or any other, the next senior teacher will be treated as Junior and reapportionment points shall be awarded.
- (iii)
- (a) Transfers shall be affected within the present management in which the Headmaster (Gr.II)/Teacher is working.
 - (b) If the Headmaster (Gr.II)/Teacher desires to go to his/her parent management, such Headmaster (Gr.II)/Teacher may opt for transfer to only those vacancies available in their parent management. In such instances, their seniority shall be taken into account in the parent management.
 - (c) If a Headmaster (Gr.II) or Teacher is identified as surplus or comes under compulsory transfer, and is currently working in a management different from their parent management, they shall invariably be transferred back to their parent management.

Provided that, Headmasters (Gr.II) and Teachers who were transferred earlier under inter-management transfers made by the Government shall not come under the above clause.
